A DEDICATED STUDENT BODY

Nominations are not over yet. In spite of the fact that we have over a thousand capable members in the institution it would appear that either two student body officers have been forgotten in the rush of nominations or that these two positions are so difficult to fill that no one cares to run for the job. Another possibility has been suggested that petitions were handed in but the student body president through some personal grudge withdrew them from the lists. Whatever it may be the actual turnout, the slowness of the student body have been unable to locate it at yet.

Taking the last possibility first, we have queried the president about the matter but he emphatically denies all charges of crookedness or influencing circumstances to settle some

A THOUGHT

Beauty does not live they say, But does for time decay.
Ah, as poorly drop of dew
The sun warms from the flowers.
The flash of roses, they say,
Is transient, winged to light.
The stars, I've heard will dwindle And disappear from sight.
Yet know I well
Though all the world may crumble Fall and rot,
Time can not take the beauty that Lingers in a thought. —E.L.

To The Ladies

School years are the happiest days of your life.

Your selection of clothes tends to add to this joy.

You who are honored with graduation this year, we are going to be able to give the largest selection for this event ever offered in town of his personal grievances. As to the second possibility, we know of no teacher job to handle it is handled as it has been this year. Becoming elected on May 1st of one year, going to school and working until the next year, responding to a year later for doing nothing; in our opinion about the height of any student body jobs.

If the first proposition is the only solution to this student body problem of 172 student body officers and not a single petition in nominating any one to fill them. Has the student body organization degenerated to such a place that every member of the student body forgets about two of the choicest student body offices, we appeal to you fellow students what is the height of this organization, for in Article IV, section 1 of the constitution we read, among other things, "The Managing Editor of the 'Y' News" and the Managing Editor of the "White and Blue" shall be elected by the members of the University.

VOTE

If the usual method were followed at this time of the year there would appear in the columns a lengthy article philosophizing on the necessity and privilege of voting at the coming elections Friday. It would seem that by the time a student has gained the necessary intelligence to be rated as a collector, he has no such reminder would be necessary. Only those with such weak-minded mentalities that they forget everything which happens today before tomorrow comes need such a reminder.
It's a plain duty that all student's vote at this election.

SHIRTS

It is hoped that sufficient care will be given to the shirts that are now being planted, that at least one out of every two shirt dress will grow. During the past few years there have been almost innumerable shirts planted each spring and there are not enough alive to have any great influence on the appearance of the campus. The grounds will certainly be beautified a great deal by the presence of these plants. Students should refrain from walking on them or packing the dirt down so hard around them that they cannot get to start. Let's all help to get them to grow.

STORIES BY FOR CARROLL MEDAL

All girls who wish to try for the Elaine Chamberlain Carroll medal must have their stories in not later than Wednesday night. The story must be based on a strictly western theme and contain not less than two thousand words. The story must not be read by its author in the girls' dinner. Mrs. Carroll will be the judge of the stories.

The judges will be Professor Harrington, R. Merrill, Alfred O'Connell, and Lucy Nelson.

C. M. T. C. TRAINING AT PORT DOUGLAS, UTAH

The schedule of training to be conducted at the C. M. T. C. Training Camp to be held at Fort Douglas, Utah, June 1st to July 1st, 1922, have been made up and are now being revised before being finally approved by Colonel W. A. Venable, Chief of Staff, 10th Division, Department of the Interior, Salt Lake City. All C.
M. T. C. officers in Wyoming, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and Utah are under his direct supervision and he is making every effort to make the year's camp as interesting as has ever been held at this camp.

An inspection of the schedule reveals that the training will be a most interesting and that the instruction will be of the highest quality. The training will be held in the thirty day period of the training. Any conception that the C. M. T. C. is a playground for the young men in attendance will fade away upon looking over what will be done each day by the candidates to gain certificates of graduation.

The first two days are made for the organization of the companies and battalions. During this time, all members of the companies and battalions are made to know each other and the importance of the training. The third day starts the actual instruction. To the training will run with the year at 5:45 a. m. will get into their clothes in a hurry, and be in the ranks for reveille roll call at 6 a. m.
After roll call is allowed for the making of beds, and the tying of the belt. Then comes roll call, and the company is divided into two groups.

Then comes the best part of the instructed in all things beautiful. Following this is the most interesting part of the day. The student who has

The University of Florida will have another picture made of its activities in the near future. The pictures are to be distributed throughout the state for the purpose of informing the peoeconomics and sociology, will act as dean of the summer school of the Brightman Young University in Dean Woodward's absence.

Resignations tendered by the following persons were accepted by the board, and will take effect at the close of this school year: Blanche M.
Condit, instructor in textiles; clothing; Alfred C. Twilchell, assistant coach; M. C. Merrill, dean of the College of Applied Sciences; Any Lynn Merrill, dean of women; Gladys Wardley Scott, instructor in modern languages; Stewart Williams, instructor in physics; Katherine B. Purdie, instructor in dramatic art; and several of the training school teachers.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM

was a guitar solo. "The Roxy" was sung by Audrey O'Connell and Miss Morton. Then Glen Guyon sang a marvelous rendition, "Livin' on the Wrecking," which was followed by a selection by the wind wood quintet, composed of Professor Swenson and four students. A vocal duet by Elaine Christensen and Alfred Hall closed the program which was an exceptional one and was highly enjoyed by the audience.

TORNADOES DESTROY LIVES AND PROPERTY IN NEVADA FIRES OR LIGHTNING

The likelihood of a single house or barn being destroyed by a tornado is less than the chance of being destroyed by fire or lightning, even in the districts where tornadoes are most frequent. Official statistics show that in 1917, Dr. W. H. Humphreys, professor of physics at the U. S. Weather Bureau, said, in commenting on the severe tornado which resulted in hundreds of fatalities in the Mississippi and Indiana recently.

Two representatives of the weather bureau are now in the strict region of the Nevada desert. Their report may reveal important information concerning the cause of these severe storms.
Usually, a tornado does not damage property in the Nevada desert, but in a width of 30 miles long, so that great havoc is done only when the storm strikes some populous district. This was the case with the one of March 18th, which passed over a number of large towns. The average number of tornadoes per year in Indiana is about five. In Nevada, where they are more frequent, it is about one every two years. In the Nevada valley they occur less frequently, but in the Nevada desert, they occur less frequently, but in the Nevada desert, they occur less frequently, but in the Nevada desert, they occur less frequently.

A tornado comes of a swirling mass of air which can even lift from the earth large objects, including houses. Just what causes it, or why they strike in the Nevada desert, is only one very rare occasion in each year, but the world is not known, but in the opinion of Dr. Humphreys, the Rocky Mountains are partially responsible for the occurrence of these storms, so that they tend to develop over the Nevada desert, and towards the Gulf of Mexico. Opposed currents are the trade winds from the Gulf, which, when they meet the Canadian winds, are warm and humid.
These two sets of winds drive Humphreys believe that the opposition of these two sets of winds causes a storm to develop. Therefore, in order to prevent the the tornado is affected by regions from being so much more frequent, it has made it a policy to not be too much worried.

"EMILIN" THRU

When she would come through the door, she would find her husband All his affection was bestowed on her, and she would find her husband in love with the son of the man who was responsible for his sorrow, he became so infatuated with her and gratified that he could no longer see the error of his ways. He was in love with her and thought she had deserted him. After four long years of work, his heart was opened, his eyes were opened and he was united again with his dear Mother.

Mr. Pardot, as the lovely and Irish character, did some very fine work. The outstanding character was Alonzo Merrill, in John Catter, who lost all his life's joy on his wedding night. A. Rex Johnson, as Dr. O'Connell, did some very fine character work, did some good character work both in the first and in the second act, where he was to have been born best man at the wedding, but he was to have taken place.
Glen Guyon, Anna Egbert and Elaine Christensen did well in their parts. Miss Egbert was especially good in her part.

The new scenery, painted with views and roses gave a very beautiful effect.
The cast left last Monday for a year of Southern Utah.

BIOGRAPHY IS SUBJECT

The program was the first time that a man ever presumed to lay down the world of the another man. He proceeded to enlarge this work and gave interesting information regarding it.
Dr. Benson recommended two very good books to be read and concluded by advising a more extended reading by college students of really good biographies.

The lecture proved to be an inspiring one to many students who were inspired to read and study biographies.

COLLEGE COMIC PAPERS EVERYWHERE ORGANIZED

That new Haskins joke will find itself copyrighted within a few days at Nevada, Harvard, Northwestern, California, Vanderbilt. In every region of the United States, college comics have been organized for the purpose of copyrighting material in order to prevent other colleges from copying and giving absolute permission to reprint only to favorable colleges.
In the fall the Midwest College Comics met at Chicago in December the Eastern Inter-collegiate Comics Association was organized at a convention at Harvard. On March 25th the Western Association of College Comics met at Los Angeles.

An organization of southern comics will soon be completed. College Humor, National Association of College Humor is sponsoring the project.
Vanderbilt will probably be the scene of a convention for this purpose, with the Vanderbilt Magazine as a host.

WOOLLEY COUNTRY POSTPONED ONE WEEK

The contest for the Mary Woolley gold medal, which was scheduled for tonight, has been postponed for one week. The contest will be held at the next Wednesday night, April 29th. Miss Woolley is a graduate of the B. Y. U. Dramatic Art department and was prominent in the activities of the school. She is now teaching dramatic art in the Provo High School. In an interview she said that her chief purpose in offering the medal was to promote clean and enjoyable humor and to offer to some degree the type of humor that is being discontinued by a number of agencies.

"BY THE WAY"

Country costumes prevailed at the "bars dance" given by the juniors and seniors Friday evening. A Country Store, rivaling that of Patty Sanders, was the feature of the evening. ## MUSIC NOTES

The B. Y. U. Band, under the leadership of Professor Sauer, will appear in concert tonight at the Pleasant Grove High School.

A very fine musical program was rendered by the band to a large appreciative audience in the youth ward amusement hall last Wednesday, April 22nd.

The cast has been selected for the opera, "The Japanese Girl," which will be presented by the Girls' Glee Club on Friday, May 1st. Practitioners are being held daily and according to Mrs. Moders, the director, the girls are doing very promising work.

WOMAN

She's an angel in truth, a demon in fiction—A woman's the greatest of all creations. She's afraid of a cockroach, she'll marry on a mule, But she'll tackle a husband as big as a house.

She'll take him for better, she'll take him for ill, She'll split his head open and then she'll be his nurse. And when he is well and can get out of bed, She'll pick up a tea pot and throw it at his head.

She's faithful, tolerant, keen-sighted and blind; She's crafty, she's simple, she's cruel, she's kind. She'll let a man up, she'll cheat a man, She'll take him apart and make him a clown.

You fancy she's this, but you'll find she's that, She'll play like a kitten and bite like a cat. In the morning she'll be with evening she won't, And you're always expecting she does, but she doesn't.

—The Sample Case—

Students at Ohio State University are in danger of the loss. The owner of a campus restaurant is threatening to prosecute students who are making a practice of stealing coffee pots from the restaurant as a protest against a cent charge for a pot.

A. W. S. REPRESENTATIVES

The representatives of the various schools who volunteered to represent Campbell's Dance Estery stated that knowledge is still and the greatest skill is acquired through association. The importance of such meetings was emphasized as so to growing problem at home.

The future principles upon which culture and civilization have been built as set forth by Dean Reber are: Sense of religion, motherhood, conservation of modesty, true valuation of human souls, and devotion to the mystery of love.

Among the special problems discussed were the place of the A. W. S. on the campus, its importance as an organization co-operating with the student body being emphasized; and extra-curricular activities. It was stated that college is part of a girl's private adventure. Over twenty of the students represented the point system in activities in solving this problem.

All of the schools appreciated the increasing importance of scholarship and expressed the belief that it should be given consideration before participating in activities was given.

"Friday was a day of interesting round table discussions," continued Miss Broadbent. "Gladys attended the meeting on the 'Dormitory-less campus.' Where there are no dormitories, daily rates are difficult to establish; however, several helpful suggestions were offered.

The B. Y. U. led in the discussion on all college problems. All the colleges were interested in the way we resolve difficult situations by exchange programs and the meetings of the state state colleges.

"Each school has individual ideas which, when combined, open up a broad field."

Miss Broadbent stated that she had attended her first street meeting and listened to a home town boy preach. "I also met three former 'Y' students," she added, "Richard Young, assistant professor in psychology and a Mr. Allen, teacher at Engers, Oregon, and Wilson, Conover, now superintendent of North Western State Sunday schools. All were interested in the 'Y'."
